May 10, 2018 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Splatsin and the City of Enderby Stand Together on Zero Tolerance of Racism

Splatsin (Enderby, BC), Secwepemc Nation – Today Splatsin First Nations and the City of Enderby are standing together on the issue of racism. Both Kukpi7 Wayne Christian and Mayor Greg McCune state zero tolerance of discrimination in the Shuswap Nation. This statement is in direct response to the vandalism of the Enderby skateboard park where prejudice comments were spray painted on the track.

“This is unacceptable racial defacing,” states Wayne Christian, Splatsin Chief, known as Kukpi7 Christian. “We will not tolerate discrimination,” continues Kukpi7 Christian. “Splatsin appreciates the diligent work done by the City of Enderby to quickly remove the offensive graffiti and to find and charge the criminals.”

Enderby Mayor Greg McCune added, “This racial behaviour and vandalism is unacceptable and will not be allowed in our community. We are working diligently with RCMP, who are currently following up on leads. Mayor McCune continues, “The City of Enderby will continue to work in partnership with Splatsin to make it clear that racism will not be condoned.”

Splatsin strives to engage our members in the pursuit of good governance, to ensure we respond to needs that are expressed at the individual, family community and Nation levels. The Splatsin are the most southern tribe of the Shuswap Nation, the largest Interior Salish speaking First Nation in Canada whose aboriginal territory stretches from the BC/Alberta border near the Yellowhead Pass to the plateau west of the Fraser River, southeast to the Arrow Lakes and to the upper reaches of the Columbia River.

Housing

Customer Crisis Fund Program

For BC Hydro residential customers at risk of disconnection

The Customer Crisis Fund (CCF) is available to all residential BC Hydro account holders who have arrears on their account and are at risk of having their electricity service disconnected. Grants of up to $600 ($500 for non-electrically heated homes) are available to eligible applicants.

ELIGIBILITY FOR A CCF GRANT:

- You need to be the residential account holder (or authorized representative applying on behalf of the account holder).
- Only your primary residence is eligible, must be in arrears (have overdue payments), and be facing disconnection.
- You must have experienced a life event, within the last 12 months, that caused a temporary financial emergency.
- To apply for a grant, you need to have an outstanding balance of $1,000 or less, and should have demonstrated some attempt to make payments towards your bill.
- You may receive one CCF grant per account-holder annually (one per year). If a grant application is denied and your circumstances change, you can apply again in the same year.

Visit bchydro.com/ccf to learn more and to apply.

High Water Safety

With many areas experiencing flooding and higher water levels, be aware of hidden risks while enjoying your time at the beach.

Wear a lifejacket when out on the water: Large debris such as logs in local lakes and rivers can present physical hazards and increase the risk of entrapment and drowning.

Do not ingest water and avoid putting your face in water: Although bacteria may not be concentrated in large bodies of water (lakes), it's important to take precautions.

Do not swim in areas near septic systems that may have been compromised.

Avoid fast-flowing water such as creeks and rivers: High water in rivers can overwhelm the strongest swimmers. Even if you know a spot well, recent conditions may make the river unpredictable. Stay away from river banks as flowing water may cause the bank to be unstable. Cold water temperatures also pose the risk of hypothermia.

Watch children closely: Ensure that children are supervised around water and are not ingesting or putting their faces in water. If visiting a splash pad, ensure children do not drink the water or put their mouths over water features. Most municipal water pads have chlorinated water, which does reduce the risk.

What does it mean to be a parent? Growing your children and yourselves for a happy, healthy life.

Parenting can be hard, and our children do not come to us with manuals. What can be most surprising as a parent is how we often become the kind of parent we didn't want to be at all! To understand why, we have to look at our own stories and how they have traveled with us through time to become part of how we are growing up our children. Once we do that, it will have the effect of growing us up so that we can then be very available to the growing up of our children. This presentation will explore how our own histories become part of a present-day parenting journey, the needs that our children (and us as parents!) have, how to best meet those needs, and what this might look like in everyday life. Any "big people" are welcome to attend including professionals and especially parents.
